Once, there was a kind and healthy sunflower called 'Sam'.

He lived with his Mummy and Daddy at famer George's sunflower field. Sam was very happy that he was grown by famer George and that he had great friends and famer George

One day a cruel witch called Maria Kejriwal entered the farm. She wore a creaky wooden witch's hat and a slimy green dress with shoes full of fleas. She lived in a cauldron filled with magical substances like sprinkles of an extinct bones, now that's really rare! Etc. As she stomped into the field of sunflowers. Sam was first one to notice her.

Without any mercy for the sunflowers, she stepped where Sam lived as she stomped his friends and family members. Poor Sam had to save his people so he tried to recall what his mother told to perform to kill a witch." A Kathak " he beamed. It's a bit different though!!

“Put your right leg in, & your left hand in & shake it all around

Put your left leg in, & your right hand in & shake it all around”

This is the way you do it

While he was performing Kathak, it dissipated divine energy and Maria got electric shocks and soon died! The next day, Sam received the medal of bravery at the Mayor's office. It was a large office with fine marble designs. There were many medals like The Sherifs Award which is given when you save a sunflower

& The medal of bravery of course.

His parents were very happy and proud of Sam. . The next year there was a visitor again. It was Ms
.Kejriwal the trio witch who was the strongest ever present. She attacked them again but then

Miracle happened. Sam disappeared just before the war!! When Sam disappeared, Using her powers she made the volcanos erupt all at one. The Earth trembled all at once. Hurricanes took over the planet. The fields rose with Floods & water. There was nothing they could do. His parents were looking But there was nothing they could do. Millions of years passed and Sam arrived and built it Up. But how ? It remains a mystery!!!

The end
